

SALLYPORT RECEIVES CONTRACT AWARD TO SUPPORT MEDIA TRAINING IN IRAQ

BRIDGEVILLE, PA.– October 15, 2009 – The International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX) has selected Sallyport Global Services (SGS) to provide assistance with implementing its US Department of State Grant to provide media and press training in Iraq. The contract is six-months in duration, will start immediately. Under the contract Sallyport will provide all security and life support services for IREX in Baghdad and the Kurdish Regional Governates (KRG) to enable their operations in Iraq.

Bill Burgermeister, VP of Development Programs and Iraq Country Manager for Sallyport pointed out that “This is our seventh USAID or DoS Prime Contractor that we are currently serving and we’re excited to have the opportunity to support IREX here and help them accomplish their critical mission to build democracy here in Iraq through creation of a professional, strong and independent media.” Sallyport has successfully operated in Iraq since 2004.
